

Persistence and Resistance in English Studies

New Research

Edited by Sara Martin, David Owen and Elisabet Pladevall-Ballester

Persistence and Resistance: New Research in English Studies gathers together a selection of articles by members of the Association of Young Researchers in Anglophone Studies (ASYRAS). The volume covers a wide range of topics dealing with English literature and culture, language and linguistics. Varied in content and methodology, the articles here offer valuable insights into how young researchers approach the field of English Studies at a time of crisis when the very existence of the university is at risk.

Sara Martin is Senior Lecturer in English Literature and Cultural Studies at the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona. Dr Martín specialises in gender studies, particularly masculinities studies, which she applies to the study of popular fictions in English, with an emphasis on science fiction and horror.

David Owen holds an MA in English Literature from Edinburgh University and an MA and PhD in English Literature from the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, where he is a Lecturer and Researcher in English.

Elisabet Pladevall-Ballester holds an MA in Linguistics from University College London and a PhD in English Language and Linguistics from Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona. She is a Lecturer and Researcher in English Applied Linguistics at Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona.

Are you looking for a publisher for your scholarly work?

Cambridge Scholars Publishing is an academic publishing house committed to providing a forward-thinking service that champions original thinking and puts our authors at the heart of everything we do.

Founded by former lecturers and researchers from the University of Cambridge, we publish research monographs, edited volumes, conference proceedings, and select PhD proceedings, with a particular focus on The Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences. With a strong reputation for author satisfaction, we understand the importance of making the publishing process a rewarding experience, with no cost to the author/editor, complimentary copies, a substantial author discount, free access to our eBook titles, and a generous royalty scheme. Our publications are marketed worldwide and sold through international booksellers and distributors including Amazon, Blackwell, Baker & Taylor, YBP and Ingram, and are widely purchased by academic libraries. In addition, we have distribution partnerships in key geographical territories such as the USA, China, India and the Middle East.

Our international Editorial Advisory Board is chaired by Professor Emeritus David Weir and consists of established scholars and leading-edge thinkers, who play a key role in helping us to steer our commissioning focus. Professor Weir explains: “Cambridge Scholars is a publishing house with a difference: I have experienced first-hand the strong scholarly values coupled with a level of efficiency, which sets it apart from the rest. The team produces topical books that cut through all the complexities of contemporary publishing, with a genuine focus on a superior author experience.”
