Activities intended for international students

The International Welcome Days are intended for the international students of the UAB.

They consist of a week of activities, workshops and talks offering an initial introduction to the academic, social and cultural life of the campus for recently arrived students, and they are also a good way of getting to know other both local and international UAB students. Two are held, one in September and the other in February, at the beginning of each semester.

See more information

Mentor (buddy) offers international students arriving at the UAB the support of local students with a mobility program to facilitate integration into the academic, social and cultural world of the UAB.

Registration is required.

See more information

Tandem offers you the opportunity to practise different languages and get to know other cultures and ways of doing things, having a language partner and participating in the activities that are organized.

In addition, we organize other language-related activities, such as conversation groups or watching films in their original version, with subtitles in the same language.

Planning your stay in Barcelona

Accommodation

On campus: Vila Universitaria is a residential complex of 812 apartments located on the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona campus.

Off campus: we have a support service to contact different accommodation options off the UAB campus.

Choose your room

 Vila Universitària

Calculate accommodation and living expenses

In general, you should count on the following monthly expenses:

- Food: €250 to 350
- Personal and leisure expenses: €160 to 220
- Transport: €60 to 80
- Accommodation: €250 to 500

TOTAL: €720 to €1,200 per month for accommodation and living expenses

Study expenses

All academic expenses are included under “registration”. In public universities this is a separate expense from accommodation and living expenses.

The prices are calculated in accordance with the credits for which you have registered. You can consult the approximate cost of your registration at the following link:

Foreign procedures

The law on foreigners is constantly being renewed, and it is therefore very important for future students of the UAB to contact the UAB International Support Service (ISS) before their arrival so that they can be informed about possible changes to the law

UE-students:

Those who come from within the European Union don't need to make any further bureaucratic procedure before their arrival.

- Legal procedures for UE students

- Legal procedures for non-UE students

- Types of Visa
- Spanish consulate offices
- Foreigners Identity Card \(TIE\)

Non-UE Students:

It is mandatory for you to ask for a visa in the Spanish Consulate office of where you are legally residing at the time of matriculation. You can jump-start the procedure with the admission documentation that the UAB gives to their students.

Depending on the duration of your stay the types of visa can be:

- Type C: Maximum duration of 90 days
- Type D, Code SSU: Maximum duration of 6 months
- Type D, Code SLU: More than 6 months. In this case, you need to process the TIE within one month after your entrance in Spain.

Non-UE Students residing in the UE at the time of admission:

You can regularize your situation in the Foreigner's Office back at Barcelona at Murcia Street, 42 within one month after your entrance to Spain. For this the TIE of the current UE country you are residing at must be on-going as well as having an entrance sign of the moment you entered in Spain.

If the passport has not been signed you need to fill an entrance declaration within the Police Office back at the Airport or, at the very least, at the Police Office situated in Gipuzkoa Street, 74 (Barcelona) within the first 72 hours after your entry in Spain.

Work placements and working as a student

UAB Work Service

UAB students have a set of resources geared toward enabling employment and seeking work and/or work placements related to their studies. All these resources are available on the Work Service.

The main aim of the Work Service is to help UAB students and degree holders to access the labour market through companies and institutions seeking the most appropriate professionals and talent for their companies at the University.

How to apply for a work permit

Those non-Community students who wish to work in Spain and have a job offer can do so by applying for a work permit.

This permit only allows you to work part-time or full-time for a maximum three months, provided that it is compatible with your academic timetable. Its expiry is subject to the contract termination date and/or to the expiry date of the TIE (foreigner ID card), although it can be renewed.
