Language(s) used in class: English Lecture Y Timetable http://www.uab.cat/web/estudiar/altres/horaris-i-aules-graus-1345/15491959.html Course coordinator contact details: http://www.uab.cat/servlet/Satellite/estudiar/llistat-de-graus/pla-d- estudis/guies-docents/traduccio-i-interpretacio-grau-eees-1345467811508.html?param1=122829101 8509 (search on original course title) Prerequisites Required language level: English C1.2 CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference) At the beginning of the course students should be able to: • • Understand different specialised types of written texts, with fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) • Write different types of texts, using fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subject areas and able to discern variation in accents, styles or registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) • Understand different types of spoken English about a wide range of subject areas and able to discern variation in accents, styles or registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) • Express themselves in different types of spoken English about a wide range of subject is a wide range of subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI B2.4) Learning objectives Consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting an to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to:	Original course title: Expressió oral B per a intèrprets (anglès)Code: 101451Year: 4 th Semester: 1 st (check timetable below)	ECTS: 3
Seminar Y Independent study Y Timetable http://www.uab.cat/web/estudiar/altres/horaris-i-aules-graus-1345715491959.html Course coordinator contact details: http://www.uab.cat/servlet/Satellite/estudiar/listat-de-graus/pla-d- estudis/quies-docents/traduccio-i-interpretacio-grau-eees-1345467811508.html?param1=122829101 8508 (search on original course title) Prerequisites Required language level: English C1.2 CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference) At the beginning of the course students should be able to: • Understand different specialised types of written texts, with fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) • Write different types of texts, using fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects are employing the most common styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) • Write different types of spoken English about a wide range of subject areas and able to discern variation in accents, styles or registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) • Express themselves in different types of spoken English no general topics in a wide range of subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) • Express themselves is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting an to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. • Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using comple constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4)	Language(s) used in class: English	Lecture	✓
 Improvement of the set of the s			 ✓
Course coordinator contact details: http://www.uab.cat/servlet/Satellite/estudiar/llistat-de-graus/pla-d-estudis/guies-docents/traduccio-i-interpretacio-grau-eees-1345467811508.html?param1=122829101 B308 (search on original course title) Prerequisites Required language level: English C1.2 CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference) At the beginning of the course students should be able to: • Understand different specialised types of written texts, with fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) • Write different types of texts, using fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects an employing the most common styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.1) • Understand different types of spoken English about a wide range of subject areas and able to discern variation in accents, styles or registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) • Express themselves in different types of spoken English no general topics in a wide range of subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI B2.4) Learning objectives The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting an to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: • Understand different types of spoken English, on a wide registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) • Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) <th></th> <th>Independent study</th> <th> ✓ </th>		Independent study	 ✓
estudis/quies-docents/traduccio-i-interpretacio-grau-eees-1345467811508.html?param1=122829101 8508 (search on original course title) Prerequisites Required language level: English C1.2 CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference) At the beginning of the course students should be able to: • Understand different specialised types of written texts, with fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) • Write different types of texts, using fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects an employing the most common styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) • Understand different types of spoken English about a wide range of subject areas and able to discern variation in accents, styles or registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) • Express themselves in different types of spoken English on general topics in a wide range of subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI B2.4) Learning objectives The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting an to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: • Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using comple constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) • Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject area employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria • Listening comprehension and speaking activities • Theme-centred speaking activities • Independent work • Continual assessment	Timetable http://www.uab.cat/web/estudiar/altres/horaris-i-aules-graus	s-1345715491959.html
estudis/quies-docents/traduccio-i-interpretacio-grau-eees-1345467811508.html?param1=122829101 8508 (search on original course title) Prerequisites Required language level: English C1.2 CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference) At the beginning of the course students should be able to: • Understand different specialised types of written texts, with fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) • Write different types of texts, using fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects an employing the most common styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) • Understand different types of spoken English about a wide range of subject areas and able to discern variation in accents, styles or registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) • Express themselves in different types of spoken English on general topics in a wide range of subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI B2.4) Learning objectives The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting an to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: • Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using comple constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) • Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject area employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the approprial intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria • Listening comprehension and speaking activities • Theme-centred speaking activities • Independent work • Continual assessment	Course coordinator contact details: http://www.uab.cat/servlet/Sate	lite/estudiar/llistat-de-graus/p	la-d-Prerequisites Required language level: English C1.2 CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference) At the beginning of the course students should be able to: Understand different specialised types of written texts, with fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Write different types of texts, using fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects an employing the most common styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.1) Understand different types of spoken English about a wide range of subject areas and able to discern variation in accents, styles or registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Express themselves in different types of spoken English on general topics in a wide range of subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI B2.4) Learning objectives The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting anto improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using comple constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing the able to:
 Required language level: English C1.2 CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference) At the beginning of the course students should be able to: Understand different specialised types of written texts, with fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Write different types of texts, using fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects an employing the most common styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.1) Understand different types of spoken English about a wide range of subject areas and able to discern variation in accents, styles or registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Express themselves in different types of spoken English on general topics in a wide range of subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI B2.4) Learning objectives The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting anto improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using comple constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies
 At the beginning of the course students should be able to: Understand different specialised types of written texts, with fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Write different types of texts, using fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects an employing the most common styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.1) Understand different types of spoken English about a wide range of subject areas and able to discern variation in accents, styles or registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Express themselves in different types of spoken English on general topics in a wide range of subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI B2.4) Learning objectives The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting ant to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using complex constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment 	Prerequisites
 Understand different specialised types of written texts, with fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Write different types of texts, using fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects an employing the most common styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.1) Understand different types of spoken English about a wide range of subject areas and able to discern variation in accents, styles or registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Express themselves in different types of spoken English on general topics in a wide range of subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI B2.4) Learning objectives The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting an to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using comple constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies 	Required language level: English C1.2 CEFR (Common European Fra	mework of Reference)
 Understand different specialised types of written texts, with fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Write different types of texts, using fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects an employing the most common styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.1) Understand different types of spoken English about a wide range of subject areas and able to discern variation in accents, styles or registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Express themselves in different types of spoken English on general topics in a wide range of subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI B2.4) Learning objectives The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting an to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using comple constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject area employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies wide range of subjects. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Write different types of texts, using fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects an employing the most common styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.1) Understand different types of spoken English about a wide range of subject areas and able to discern variation in accents, styles or registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Express themselves in different types of spoken English on general topics in a wide range of subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI B2.4) Learning objectives The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting an to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using comple constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment 	0 0 employing the most common styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.1) Understand different types of spoken English about a wide range of subject areas and able to discern variation in accents, styles or registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Express themselves in different types of spoken English on general topics in a wide range of subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI B2.4) Learning objectives The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting an to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using complex constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment 		complex constructions, abou	it a Understand different types of spoken English about a wide range of subject areas and able to discern variation in accents, styles or registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Express themselves in different types of spoken English on general topics in a wide range of subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI B2.4) Learning objectives The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting an to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using complex constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment 	• Write different types of texts, using fairly complex constructions,		ts an discern variation in accents, styles or registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Express themselves in different types of spoken English on general topics in a wide range of subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI B2.4) Learning objectives The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting an to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using complex constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment Express themselves in different types of spoken English on general topics in a wide range of subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI B2.4) Learning objectives The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting an to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using complex constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment subject areas using fairly complex constructions. (CEFR-FTI B2.4) Learning objectives The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting an to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using complex constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriate intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment Learning objectives The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting an to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using comple constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment 	, , , , , , ,	1 0
 The aim of this course is to consolidate the listening comprehension skills necessary for interpreting an to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using complet constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment 		4) to improve oral expression skills in English needed in interpreting. At the end of the course students should be able to: Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using completions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriate intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment 		kills necessary for interpretin	na an
 At the end of the course students should be able to: Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using complet constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment 	• .		ig un
 Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of spoken English, using complet constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriate intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment constructions and reflecting a wide range of subject areas, styles and registers. (CEFR-FTI C1.4) Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment 	At the end of the course students should be able to:
 Express themselves in different types of spoken English, on a wide range of subject areas employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment 	• Understand fairly easily the majority of different types of	spoken English, using co	mple employing styles and registers, in a clear and well-structured manner with the appropriat intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment intonation. (CEFR-FTI C1.3) Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment
Competencies Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment		red manner with the appro	opriat
 Assessment criteria Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment
 Listening comprehension and speaking activities Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment 	Competencies
 Theme-centred speaking activities Independent work Continual assessment 	Assessment criteria
 Independent work Continual assessment 	 Listening comprehension and speaking activities
Continual assessment	Theme-centred speaking activities
	Independent work
These categories may van from year to year. Definitive weightings will be specified by the instructor at	Continual assessment

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information given above. However, courses are subject to regular review and revision and the university reserves the right to amend course offers according to UAB ordinances and regulations. Students should contact the corresponding coordinator regarding the current status for courses they are considering.