

Composition of the thesis committee board evaluating the thesis

Composition:

In the proposal of the thesis board, no more than one of the three titular members can be from the UAB or from the collaborating institutions of the Doctoral School or the Doctoral Program. As for the two or three substitute members, only one can be from the UAB or the collaborator institutions of the Doctoral School or the Doctoral Program.

Academic status of the committee members:

If the academic situation of a committee member does not correspond to any of the following, it will be necessary that the Academic Committee of the Doctorate Program had assessed that he/she has sufficient research experience to be part of the tribunal, based on the CV on research projects and publications of the last five years.

Academic Status: Catedràtic d'Universitat, Catedràtic d'Escola Universitària, Catedràtic Laboral, Titular d'Universitat, Titular d'Escola Universitària, Professor associat, Lector, Professor jubilat o emèrit d'universitat espanyola, Professor Agregat, Professor Contractat Doctor, Professor Ajudant de Doctorat, Investigador, Professor investigador del CSIC, Científic Titular del CSIC, investigador ICREA, Investigador Ramón y Cajal.

Substitute members:

If on the day of the defense of the thesis one of the titular members of the tribunal cannot attend, one of the substitutes should attend, but considering that a maximum of one of the three members in the final composition of the tribunal can be from the UAB or the collaborating institutions of the Doctoral School or Program.

Doctoral theses directed by doctors external to the Department:

When the doctoral thesis is not directed by a member of the Department of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology of the UAB or by a tutor of the Doctoral Program in Biochemistry, Molecular Biology and Biomedicine, a member of the Department or Program tutor must be included in the thesis committee board, different from the thesis tutor.
