

General criteria for the appointment of the PhD jury

Some practical advices to appoint the PhD jury:

1. You need to appoint 3 official members (titulares) and at least 2 step-in ones (suplentes). It is strongly suggested that step-in members are scholar based in Barcelona area;
2. The members of the jury has to be experts in your research field and, generally, with research in economics;
3. All the members have to be active in research. This dimension is accredited by having an active-research recognition (tramo de investigacion vivo) or assimilated merits for people from abroad or not appointed as civil servants (funcionarios);

For having a full overview of the formalities to submit a thesis please have a look at this link.