

Interuniversity PhD Programme in Bioinformatics

Criteria for Granting the Extraordinary Extension by the CAPD

Documentation to be submitted by the student:

Student's application.

- Favourable report from the thesis supervisor(s).
- Favourable report from the thesis tutor.
- Detailed and specific timeline of the pending tasks to be carried out during the extension period.
- Documentation supporting the situation claimed.

CAPD decision criteria:

- Favourable or unfavourable nature of the reports from the thesis supervisor(s) and/or tutor(s).
- Feasibility of the timetable proposed by the applicant.
- Degree of fulfilment of the commitments established in previous progress reviews and the first extension, if applicable.
- Existence of duly justified reasons related to unforeseen, unexpected, or force majeure circumstances that have prevented the normal development of the doctoral project.