

MassFactory

Mass Factory is a technology based company that emerged from the School of Engineering at the Autonomous University of Barcelona.

The company develops systems based on mobile apps, with geolocation and on the cloud processing intended for route planning, guidance and supervision of people with special needs when going around the city, improving their mobility, quality of life and social inclusion.

appandtown.com →

● Technologies

App&Town is an accessible application for mobile with Android and iOS operating systems that guides from a point of origin to a destination by using of metropolitan transport. It is an ambient intelligence application in the urban environment using the latest technologies available on mobile devices such as GPS, compass and accelerometer, as well as 3G/WiFi connection to provide maps and a guidance system.

● Contact

Faustino Cuadrado Capitán
faustino.cuadrado@massfactory.com

Edifici Eureka · Parc de Recerca
UAB
08193, Bellaterra, Spain

