

Complementary training

Depending on your previous studies and an individual review of your student record by the Course Coordinator, you may need to take additional training courses. The credits belonging to complementary training will be added to the 60 credits ECTS of the Master.

| Master's specialization                 | Previous studies  |  |  |  |
|---|---|--|--|--|
|   | Official university diploma in Translation and Interpreting or equivalent | Official university diploma in East Asian Studies or equivalent*   | Other official university diplomas   | Students who do not have a Level C1 of Spanish |
| Translation and Intercultural Mediation | No additional courses needed  | "Introduction to B-A Translation" 6 ECTS   | "Introduction to B-A Translation" 6 ECTS   | "Support to Master Course" 9 ECTS              |
| Conference Interpreting                 | No additional courses needed*   | "Preparation Techniques for B-A Consecutive Interpreting" 12 ECTS credits, in the two foreign working languages(English, French or German) | "Preparation Techniques for B-A Consecutive Interpreting" 12 ECTS credits, in the two foreign working languages(English, French or German) |  |
| Translation and Intercultural Studies   | No additional courses needed  | No additional courses needed   | No additional courses needed   |  |
| Modern East Asia                        | No additional courses needed  | No additional courses needed   | No additional courses needed   |  |

* Although graduates in Translation and Interpreting do not need to take additional training courses, those interested in taking the specialisation "Conference Interpreting" may have to take the course listed above, depending on the degree of experience in interpreting they have from their prior studies.