

Second Stage UAB-LE-120002. American Literature

The following four candidates presented a research profile that suited the post under consideration.

The provisional ranking of the four is as follows:

1. Nicholas Spengler
2. Dolores Resano
3. Richard Parker
4. Laura Gimeno

The candidates will be called to an online interview in the second stage of the selection process following alphabetical order:

Laura Gimeno	May 26 th 11 am CET
Richard Parker	May 26 th 3 pm CET
Dolores Resano	May 27 th 11 am CET
Nicholas Spengler	May 27 th 3 pm CET

Instructions and Criteria for the Second Stage

Candidates will be asked to discuss their CV (maximum 20 minutes), then outline their main research project (20 minutes). The third part of the interview consists of a lecture aimed at second year undergraduate students which should illustrate this research project. Note that the lecture need not be based on an existing subject that is taught at the UAB. The lecture should not be longer than 45 minutes. After the lecture, the committee will ask the candidates to clarify certain points or to elaborate on areas that may not have been sufficiently covered.

Assessment Criteria

Presentation of CV	10 points
Presentation of research project	10 points
Lecture	20 points

The points obtained in the second phase will be added to those obtained in the first phase of the selection process