

UAB-LE-408

Assessment criteria

The members of the Selection Committee agreed to evaluate the CVs and supporting documents of the candidates according to the following criteria:

1. CV

1.1. Research merits: up to 70 points including publications, stages in research centres, participation in research projects, and participation in conferences/seminars.

1.2. Teaching merits: up to 20 points including teaching experience, (and teacher training where applicable) at undergraduate and postgraduate level, supervision of theses and student's projects, teaching in specialist and diverse fields and positive evaluations.

1.3. Other merits: up to 10 points including awards, university management responsibilities, participation in committees, languages mastered, and published translations.

2. Adequacy to areas of expertise and needed profile by the Department. The candidate will be asked to teach in one or more of the following subjects: Chinese language, Translation from Chinese into Catalan/Spanish, Text and context (Chinese), Chinese linguistics, Consecutive interpreting, Interpreting in the Public Services, Chinese Literature.

The members of the Selection Committee also agreed to establish a threshold of three candidates for the second phase.