

ICTA-UAB Fellowships

*Because we cannot solve our problems with the same level of thinking that created them**

The growing threat and complexity of environmental problems can only be addressed by considering the natural and social sciences together.

At ICTA-UAB, we are actively engaged in bridging the natural and social sciences to address the world's most pressing environmental issues.

* A. Einstein

UAB

Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona

icta

Institut de Ciència
i Tecnologia Ambientals • UAB

EXCELENCIA
MARÍA
DE MAEZTU

- Fellowships are currently available to fully fund 7 Ph.D. candidates who would like to pursue their doctoral studies at the Institute of Environmental Science and Technology (ICTA-UAB) within the Strategic Research Programme 'María de Maeztu' Unit of Excellence.
- Transdisciplinary research topics are available for candidates from a variety of backgrounds, and include environmental economics, global biogeochemical cycles, ecology, anthropology and Earth system modelling.
- Successful applicants will be hosted at the award-winning building of the ICTA-UAB at the UAB Campus (Bellaterra, Barcelona, Spain).
- Deadline for applications: is 8 pm (CET) on 10th July 2016.
- Contracts are expected to start by January 2017. Applicants should have an excellent academic record and have completed their Master's degree before the recruitment date.
- Read the full call for more information on the specific research projects, qualification requirements and application procedure here and write to pr.mdm.icta@uab.cat for further information or to apply for the positions.

