

In the second challenge of the week, we propose you to discover the art hidden in the university.

In the following link you will find the artworks located within the UAB campus.

We encourage you to look for them individually or in groups!

Once you find it you can take a photo and share it with @uabsummer.

