

WHAT CAN YOU DO IF YOU HAVE EXPERIENCED OR WITNESSED ABUSE AT THE INC-UAB

Follow-up commission

If you're a PhD student and feel comfortable with your follow-up commission, you can discuss it with them

Equality Committee

Whether you're a student or not, you can also reach out to the Institute's Equality Committee.

How can you get in touch with the Equality Committee?

- 1 Through the anonymous form
- 2 By emailing comissio.igualtat.inc@uab.cat or contacting any of the members directly (all information will be handled confidentially).

What actions will the Equality Committee take?

- 1 The contact person from the INC-UAB Committee will not disclose any information without the consent of the involved person.
- 2 Together, the involved person and the Committee's contact will decide whether to inform another member of the Committee.
The person involved, along with the Committee member(s), will determine whether to resolve the situation through mediation between the parties or if it's more appropriate to bring the matter directly to the UAB Equality and Diversity Service.
- 3
- 4 The Equality and Diversity Service (confidentially) will review the case and, together with the concerned person, determine how best to address the situation and what resources may be needed for resolution.