Use of languages

Principal working language: english (eng)

Some groups entirely in English: Yes

Some groups entirely in Catalan: No

Some groups entirely in Spanish: No

Prerequisites

A level of B2.1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages is required.

Objectives and Contextualisation

This course emphasises the listening comprehension of English as it is based on a series of TED talks. Different grammatical and lexical aspects of the English language will be developed on the basis of the contents of a talk and of other activities in each of the units, such as passive and active constructions, the ways of expressing future, different modals and their uses, among others. The subject also includes a writing component, reading comprehension and pronunciation activities.

Skills

Art History

- Developing critical thinking and reasoning and communicating them effectively both in your own and other languages.
- Students must be capable of communicating information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialised and non-specialised audiences.
- Students must develop the necessary learning skills in order to undertake further training with a high degree of autonomy.

Learning outcomes

1. Ability to maintain an appropriate conversation.
2. Carrying out oral presentations using an appropriate academic vocabulary and style.
3. Communicating in the studied language in oral and written form, properly using vocabulary and grammar.
4. Critically taking part in classroom oral debates and using the discipline's specific vocabulary.
5. Identifying the main and secondary ideas and expressing them with linguistic correctness.
6. Preparing an oral and written discourse in the corresponding language in a proper and organized way.
7. Submitting works in accordance with both individual and small group demands and personal styles.

Evaluation

This subject follows continuous assessment.

Non-assessable students are those who have done less than a 30% of the assessment items of the course.

Reassessment will only be offered to students who obtain a 4 (or higher) in the final exam, and will consist of a written exam which will include all the units of the course.

The maximum mark that can be obtained if a student sits the reassessment exam is a 5.

VERY IMPORTANT: Partial or total plagiarising will immediately result in a FAIL (0) for the plagiarised exercise (first-year subjects) or the WHOLE SUBJECT (second-, third- and fourth-year subjects). PLAGIARISING consists of copying text from unacknowledged sources -whether this is part of a sentence or a whole text- with the intention of passing it off as the student's own production. It includes cutting and pasting from internet sources, presented unmodified in the student's own text. Plagiarising is a SERIOUS OFFENCE. Students must respect authors' intellectual property, always identifying the sources they may use; they must also be responsible for the originality and authenticity of their own texts.
