Prerequisites

There are no specific requirements for this subject BUT a level of B2 English is essential for students of English Studies and C1 for students from Combined Degrees as they take the subject in their second year. Students should be able to understand and follow theoretical discussions of historical and cultural texts. They should also be able to interact with native speakers and express their ideas and opinions without effort.

Objectives and Contextualisation

The subject History and Culture of the British Isles provides an introduction to the main events and figures of British and Irish history and culture. The main purpose of this subject is to prepare students to understand British and Irish society, which will help them to follow the remaining subjects in their degree.

After taking this subject students will be able to

- Show that they have understood a variety of texts
- Use the historical and cultural resources of any library
- Express an informed critique of any cultural or historical text they may read.

Skills

Evaluation

Assessment

- Assessment is continuous.
- Students must do ALL the exercises in order to pass the subject.
- Students need a global mark of 5.0 to be able to pass the course.
- Once students have done the oral and written exams and the essay, their final mark will be based on these items regardless of whether they do not fulfill the remaining requirements.
- The level of English will be taken into account.

IMPORTANT: Total or partial plagiarism from any other source in any assessed activity will automatically be considered as a FAIL.

Reassessment

- Only students who have done the four main assessment activities and have obtained a final mark of between 3.5-4.9 have the right to be reassessed.
- The maximum grade in the reassessment exam is 5.
- Students who pass the course cannot do the reassessment exam in order to get a higher mark.

Procedure for Reviewing Grades Awarded

On carrying out each evaluation activity, lecturers will inform students (on Moodle) of the procedures to be followed for reviewing all grades awarded, and the date on which such a review will take place.

Evaluation Activities Excluded from Reassessment

The following activities are not eligible for reassessment:

- Class participation and the speaking exam cannot be reassessed.

Approximate dates for assessment activities

- Exam 1 - Mid-course (annual course - first class in February, semester course - November)
- Essay - Annual course - January, semester course - December

- Exam 2 - Last day of class (annual course - May, semester course - January)
- Speaking exam - Annual course - June, semester course - January
