Use of languages

Principal working language: english (eng)
 Some groups entirely in English: Yes
 Some groups entirely in Catalan: No
 Some groups entirely in Spanish: No

Prerequisites

Students should have completed the third year course subjects.

The students' level of English should be between C1 (advanced) and C2 (proficiency) of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: Learning, Teaching, Assessment.

Objectives and Contextualisation

This course is aimed at providing students with a sense of the extraordinary variety of poetry written in English by women, ranging from the 16th century until the current age. Rather than focusing on specific literary movements and distinct poets, the subject is structured around themes in an attempt to make poetry the real protagonist. Through intensive reading, text analysis, interpretation and creative writing exercises, students will be able to experience poetry as an aspect close to their day-to-day lives. Students will be asked to see videos related to performance poetry, listen to recordings of poets reading their own and other poets' work and will learn to read poetry aloud. The creative input and literary analysis will be enhanced by the reading of critical essays on poetry.

Skills

English Studies

- Critically assessing the scientific, literary and cultural production in the English language.
- Demonstrate a comprehension of the relationship between factors, processes and phenomena of linguistics, literature, history and culture, and explaining it.
- Develop critical thinking and reasoning and knowing how to communicate effectively both in your mother tongue and in other languages.
- Distinguish and contrast the various theoretical and methodological models applied to the study of the English language, its literature and its culture.
- Identify the main literary, cultural and historical currents in the English language.
- Produce clear and well structured and detailed texts in English about complex topics, displaying a correct use of the organisation, connection and cohesion of the text.
- Rewrite and organize information and arguments coming from several sources in English and presenting them in a coherent and summarised way.

- Students must be capable of communicating information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialised and non-specialised audiences.
- Students must develop the necessary learning skills in order to undertake further training with a high degree of autonomy.

Evaluation

The final mark for this subject is based on:

- Class Participation: 10%
- Oral Presentation / research: 40%. Approximate date: 26-29 March.
- Paper or Poetry Collection: 50%. Approximate date: 28 May.

Please, note:

- All the subjects in this degree follow continuous assessment.
- All the exercises are COMPULSORY. An exercise not handed in or an exam the student has not sat will count as an 'NA' ('no avaluable' or 'no evidence'), that is to say a 0. Doing at least 30% of the assessment exercises, of any type, excludes obtaining an NA as final mark.
- The minimum mark for an exercise or exam to be considered for the average final mark is 4, although the minimum pass mark for the whole subject is 5.
- The student's command of English will be taken into account when marking all exercises and for the final mark. It will count as 25% of this mark for all the exercises and will be assessed as follows:
 - Grammar (morphology and syntax): 30%
 - Vocabulary (accuracy and variety): 15%
 - Cohesion (among sentences and paragraphs): 15%
 - Organization (sound argumentation of ideas): 20%
 - Style (expression and register): 15%

Spelling: 5%

- Reviewing procedure: Students have a right to review their exercises with the teacher in a personal tutorial, on the set dates, never later than 2 weeks after the exercise/exam is marked, including re-assessment. The student loses this right if s/he fails to collect the exercise/exam within the period announced by the teacher.
- Re-assessment conditions: Students whose minimum final mark is 3.5 are entitled to reassessment. The nature of the reassessment is to be decided by the teacher.

VERY IMPORTANT: Partial or total plagiarising will immediately result in a FAIL (0) for the plagiarised exercise (first-year subjects) or the WHOLE SUBJECT (second-, third- and fourth-year subjects). PLAGIARISING consists of copying text from unacknowledged sources -whether this is part of a sentence or a whole text- with the intention of passing it off as the student's own production. It includes cutting and pasting from internet sources, presented unmodified in the student's own text. Plagiarising is a SERIOUS OFFENCE. Students must respect authors' intellectual property, always identifying the sources they may use; they must also be responsible for the originality and authenticity of their own texts.
